

The Sustainable Engineering Society

The 2015 Annual Environmental Student Evening

Proudly hosted and co-sponsored by QUT

Date:

Wednesday 28th October

Venue:

Level 5, Room P505
Science and Engineering Centre
QUT
George Street Brisbane

Time:

5:30pm for 6:00pm start

Cost:

FREE

Programme:

5:30 pm: Registrations

6:00 pm: Welcome

6:05 pm: Introduction

6:10 pm: Presentations

7:40 pm: Refreshments,
Networking and Judges
Deliberation

8:00 pm: Presentation of Awards

8:30pm: Close

This evening showcases thesis work being undertaken by undergraduate Environmental Engineering and Science students at Queensland Universities.

Speakers:

Timothy Ketterer - Queensland University of Technology

Application of GPS-Lagrangian Drifters to Shallow Water Fluid Dynamics

Jacob Thorne - Griffith University

Thermophilic Anaerobic Digestion of Sugarcane Bagasse

Sam Watson - Griffith University

Evaluation of photocatalytic activities of SiC for water purification

Geraldine Terada-Bellis - University of Queensland

Sediment and Water Budget for Lakes Somerset and Wivenhoe for the 2011 Flood in SEQld

Connie Coverdale - University of Southern Queensland

Soil Nitrogen Supply Rates during a Cotton Season

Jamie McIntyre - University of Southern Queensland

Monitoring and Removal of Natural Organic Matter from Toowoomba Water Sources

Drinks and Networking – Please join us for refreshments after the presentations.

Additional Sponsors

Gold

Gold

Drinks and Networking

Please join us for a few drinks and light supper after the presentation.

- More information can be found at <http://seng.org.au/node/548>

The presentation will count as one hour towards your CPD.

SEng and WMAA encourage you to travel by public transport.

Visit the Seng Queensland website at: <http://seng.org.au/qld-chapter>

